

Immediate Release; 22 May 2006

ALAN JONES LAUNCHES BOOK CLUB

Buy Alan Jones book recommendations online at www.2gbbookclub.com

Alan Jones' success is a testament to his ability to understand the interests and concerns of Australians from all walks of life. He is also a prolific reader of both non-fiction and fiction books – on every topic – and has a love of books that inspires readers.

Commenting on the new web-site, MRN CEO Angela Clark said, "Alan wanted a book club where he could promote books that 'give back to the readers'. He's an extremely busy person, but his office is filled with books. Anyone who has a true love of reading wants to share that experience with others. This gives people an opportunity to choose from books that Alan Jones Recommends..."

"This month, Alan Jones' recommends "Salvation Creek," by Susan Duncan and "A Doctor's War," by Rowley Richards, two amazing stories of Australians triumphing over adversity and the Pulitzer Prize winning novel, "March" by US-based, Australian, Geraldine Brooks.

The books can be purchased on line at www.2gb.com and will be delivered anywhere in Australia, usually within days of ordering.

A music store will soon be added to the site to cater for the constant requests from listeners to purchase CD's recommended by Alan Jones.

-ends-

Media Contact: Antonia O'Neill

0417 252 805 / 9270 0240